1. The first part of the document is a list of names and addresses, which are written in a cursive script. The names are written in a large, bold, and somewhat stylized font, while the addresses are written in a smaller, more regular cursive script. The list is organized into three columns, with the names in the first column and the addresses in the second and third columns. The names are written in a way that is easy to read, while the addresses are written in a way that is more difficult to read. The list is a record of the names and addresses of the people who were involved in the project.
