

101/10/2021
15/11/2021

12/11/2021

1. The Government of India has decided to provide financial assistance to the States for the purpose of providing free medical treatment to the poor and needy patients in the Government hospitals and dispensaries.

2. The Government of India has decided to provide financial assistance to the States for the purpose of providing free medical treatment to the poor and needy patients in the Government hospitals and dispensaries.

3. The Government of India has decided to provide financial assistance to the States for the purpose of providing free medical treatment to the poor and needy patients in the Government hospitals and dispensaries.

4. The Government of India has decided to provide financial assistance to the States for the purpose of providing free medical treatment to the poor and needy patients in the Government hospitals and dispensaries.

5. The Government of India has decided to provide financial assistance to the States for the purpose of providing free medical treatment to the poor and needy patients in the Government hospitals and dispensaries.

6. The Government of India has decided to provide financial assistance to the States for the purpose of providing free medical treatment to the poor and needy patients in the Government hospitals and dispensaries.

7. The Government of India has decided to provide financial assistance to the States for the purpose of providing free medical treatment to the poor and needy patients in the Government hospitals and dispensaries.

8. The Government of India has decided to provide financial assistance to the States for the purpose of providing free medical treatment to the poor and needy patients in the Government hospitals and dispensaries.

9. The Government of India has decided to provide financial assistance to the States for the purpose of providing free medical treatment to the poor and needy patients in the Government hospitals and dispensaries.

10. The Government of India has decided to provide financial assistance to the States for the purpose of providing free medical treatment to the poor and needy patients in the Government hospitals and dispensaries.

11. The Government of India has decided to provide financial assistance to the States for the purpose of providing free medical treatment to the poor and needy patients in the Government hospitals and dispensaries.