UNIVERSITY OF THE WESTERN CAPE

Write a short report on the topic of the first unit by using the notes you have taken during the first unit of the course.

QUESTION 1.1: Write a short report on the topic of the first unit by using the notes you have taken during the first unit of the course.

1.1.1

The first unit of the course is about the history of the Western Cape. It covers the period from the early 17th century to the present day. The main focus is on the role of the Dutch and the British in the region. The Dutch established the first settlement in 1652, and the British took control in 1804. The course explores the impact of these events on the local population and the environment.

The second unit of the course is about the geography of the Western Cape. It covers the physical and human geography of the region. The physical geography includes the mountains, rivers, and coastline. The human geography includes the population, agriculture, and industry. The course explores the relationship between the physical and human geography of the region.

The third unit of the course is about the culture of the Western Cape. It covers the traditional and contemporary culture of the region. The traditional culture includes the music, dance, and art. The contemporary culture includes the literature, film, and television. The course explores the role of culture in the development of the region.

QUESTION 1.2: Write a short report on the topic of the second unit by using the notes you have taken during the second unit of the course.
