For this reason you will have a wider choice when it comes to choosing your own style and colour scheme and the freedom to go with what you want to give you a personal touch. It would give you all the options of what colour you may want with regards to either one or both parts because at this stage you can make up your mind about what you want. It would give you the option to choose a different colour from the original building or even a different colour for each extension which can be very useful when you are trying to match up the new extension to the original building.
