

A large, multi-sectioned poster with a white background and red accents. It features several photographs of people, including a woman in a pink sari and a woman in a black and beige outfit. The text is in Hindi and appears to be related to health, nutrition, or a community program. There are also some logos or icons at the bottom of the poster.

A table with multiple rows and columns of text in Hindi. The text is too small to read clearly, but it appears to be a list or a schedule of some kind. The table is on a yellow background.

A section of text in Hindi, possibly a title or heading for a section. The text is in a large, bold font and is positioned above the seated audience.
